

autrevitesse altravelocità FESTIVAL

An entire event dedicated to the growing sector of Solidarity Economy: presentations of projects, conferences, debates and roundtables.

We wait you at Avigliana, in Val di Susa, from 29 June to 1 July 2018!

If you think it is necessary to grow and cultivate a great sense of Unity, if you really want to change this world, if you do not want others always choose for you, then ...
it is just up to you!
Now! Today!

All together we are working to build a new sense of Unity, without generals or leaders. We are organizing many thematic workshops, and much more will come in the next weeks!

If you do not believe that politics can get you something good,
if you believe that change is in your hands,
roll your sleeves!

Read the contents and check if the themes here meet your need for a change. If so, help us by writing to: altravelocita@socialbusinessworld.org and invite other groups dealing with the same topics.

If not, ask to be invited, become one of the stars of this event and propose your theme! Furthermore, you can spread the voice about this event to all the groups and people you think are tired of being a pawn of a game played in the "Button Room".

On Sunday, the 1st of July, a market will be held in the same location.

The festival will be preceded by the Summer School 2018 organized by the Reti di Reti in Venaus (Val di Susa) on the theme “Build Community Today: self-reliance and Selfgovernment” and a tourist walk will be organized by the Compagnia dei Cammini from the 27th to 29th of June.
